Prayer and quiet contemplation spaces and faith-based support

Prayer and contemplation spaces on campus

- Claire Chapel in the Emmanuel Centre, (near the University entrance close to the Parkinson Building) is dedicated for worship in the Christian tradition and also available for silent personal prayer, contemplation or reflection.
  Term time opening hours: Monday to Thursday 9am - 6pm, Friday 9am - 4pm.
  Vacation opening hours: Monday to Friday 9am - 4pm.

- The Green Room (on the side of the Conference Auditorium behind The Edge sports centre) and Cemetery Lodge (on Cemetery Road opposite the Medical and Biological Engineering Building) are Islamic prayer facilities offering ablution and washroom facilities and separate prayer rooms for men and women. Contact equality@leeds.ac.uk to ask for the access code for these spaces. Prayer facilities are normally open between 8am and 8pm Monday to Friday. (Extended hours during the month of Ramadan).

- Edward Boyle Library has a small prayer room on level 11, on the north side of the library. The door is kept unlocked at all times. If you have any problems accessing the space, please speak to reception staff.

- Laidlaw Library has a space for prayer at the end of the first bookcase next to Print Zone 1 on the first floor. The area allows for 2 to 3 people to worship at the same time. If there are any queries, please speak to reception staff.

- Other spaces: It may sometimes be possible to use a vacant classroom, meeting room or private study area for prayer or contemplation. Please check with reception, the porter or security staff first, to find out if the space is available. For health and safety reasons, corridors and stairwells need to be kept clear, so they can’t be used for prayer.
