Visa Arrangements

Please be aware that Study Abroad Office staff are not qualified to offer consultations or in-depth advice regarding visa applications. Immigration laws are complex and subject to frequent changes. Therefore if you do have any further questions about the process of applying for your visa you will need to contact the appropriate Embassy directly. The information below is intended as guidance only and unless otherwise stated applies only to UK citizens without exceptional circumstances.

For study periods of less than six months

Students should apply for an X2 Study Visa if their period of study in China is less than six months.

For study periods of more than six months

Students should apply for an X1 Study Visa if their period of study in China is more than six months.

Submitting your visa application

Full step by step guidance and links to the relevant forms can be found here:
http://www.visaforchina.org/

Plan to submit your visa application at least one but no more than three months prior to your intended travel date.

On the website above, select the Visa Application Centre you will be using, click on the ‘Step by Step Guidance’ section and select the appropriate visa type. The step by step guide will provide relevant links to the online application form and declaration you will need to make your visa application. The site will also provide details of which documents are needed for the visa process. The application form can be completed online (but not submitted online) or can be downloaded to your computer for completion.

Students should make an appointment to submit documents to the Chinese Visa Application Centre in either Manchester, London or Edinburgh via the website above. Once booked, the documents can be submitted on your behalf by a named representative or by yourself. Once you arrived at the Visa Application Centre on the day and time of your appointment, you should only have to wait a few minutes to be seen.

You will normally have to pay the application fee on collection of your visa. The Visa Application Centres will only accept cash or a debit card. For a regular application, the total cost is £151 including both the visa fee and an application service fee, while the express application service costs £178 in total.
