Our powerful learning journey

The Global Leadership Forum is a carefully designed and curated learning journey which offers you the flexibility to explore the issues which matter most to you.

Opening Keynote

A powerful speaker challenges and inspires you to step up as the next generation of leaders. We're thrilled to be joined by 2011 Nobel Peace Prize winner Tawakkol Karman, who, at the time, was the youngest person and first Arab woman to win the award.

Leadership Masterclasses and Insight Sessions

Choose from two rounds of Masterclasses and Insight Sessions, with expert speakers, leaders and employers. Whether a session speaks to your head or your heart, your academic or career interests, self-direct your learning by choosing the sessions that resonate the most.

Topics include:

- Financing social impact – making money to do good
- Immigration to innovation: overcoming barriers and driving success
- Developing the resilience to make a difference
- Seizing your opportunities when the odds are stacked against you

Final Leadership Masterclass

Come back together to hear from Cyrill Gutsch, CEO and Founder, Parley for the Oceans, for a masterclass in leading change. You will learn how to drive change at a local level right up to how to work with global brands like Adidas. Leave inspired to lead with passion and purpose.

Closing Keynote

To finish this incredible event you will hear from our inspiring keynote, JJ Birden, Former NFL Athlete and Motivational Speaker, who will send you away inspired to go and change the world.

Optional Networking Session

At the end of the programme, you have the opportunity to have further conversations in small groups with peers from across the University, continue to build connections and create plans for the future.

Global Leadership micro-credential

After attending the Global Leadership Forum you will have the opportunity to earn the Global Leadership micro-credential. You can share this on LinkedIn and via digital backpacks.
